

WILL FOR BRICKSON MURDER

Belgian Beet Worker Under Arrest Charged with Bloody Crime

Henry Vernisch (Hector Vermeersch), Belgian, aged 48, living at South Beloit, arrested in connection with the murder of Christianna Brickson, Friday night was held for preliminary hearing in Municipal court on Monday morning by Judge Harry L. Maxfield. November 29 was the date set.

Vernisch refused to make any statement and he was held on a complaint charging first degree murder made by District Attorney Stanley Dunwiddie.

Vernisch was arrested on Saturday following the efforts to locate the man who had made repeated attempts to cash the stolen check for $40 and who had been taken to Beloit in a taxicab by one of Paul Buggs' cab drivers.

Then, too, Fred Beley, undersheriff, was working on the theory that the man who committed the crime was well acquainted with the Brickson home and the habits of the family.

After going over the premises and making careful search it seems that the murder of Mrs. Brickson was done in cold blood, was entirely unnecessary even for the purpose of robbing her and that she was shot in the back without warning, with the last final shot through the heart fiendishly fired to make sure the elderly, harmless woman had been killed.

Refused to Plead When Taken Into Municipal Court

Refusing to plead to a complaint charging the slaying of Mrs. Christianna Brickson—first degree murder—Henry Vernisch, or Vermeersch, was held without bail by Judge H. L. Maxfield for a preliminary examination in the municipal court here on November 29. The defendant was arraigned Monday morning on the murder complaint signed by District Attorney S. C. Dunwiddie.

In court Vermeersch acted as if stricken dumb with fright and terror. He did not utter a word. His attempts at talking to answer questions of the court were merely the shaking of the head.

Vermeersch refused to come. He stared around the courtroom, although a few minutes before his being arraigned he talked freely to establish an alibi.

He was taken to the hearing and again he shook his head. He was told to sit down and the court continued with the district attorney to get the hearing date for the 29th. He will be held without bail under the murder complaint until the case is cleared up or decision reached in preliminary hearing. In event that the court finds there is sufficient evidence to hold Vermeersch, the defendant will be held for trial in the Rock county circuit court, the municipal court lacking jurisdiction to try murder cases.

Pocketbook Not Identified. Failure of Mr. Brickson to identify the pocketbook found on Vermeersch as the one carried by his wife broke down one of the chief points of evidence against the man, Monday. Shown the purse at his home Monday morning by Under Sheriff Beley and County Coroner Whaley, Brickson shook his head and said: "No, it was a different kind—it was something like this one." and he pulled out a single compartment pocketbook with a different kind of snap.

The authorities had based hopes of clearing up the case by identifying the pocketbook. Defeated in this, they are bending their efforts to establish other evidence.

Killed Man in Belgium. Brickson told the authorities Monday, when seen at his home standing within a few feet of where his wife was slain, that Vermeersch had left Belgium because he killed a man. He qualified this by stating that he was given this information sometime ago by Belgians working at the sugar plant.

One of them told me he had to get out of Belgium because he killed a man," said Brickson. "Of course I don't know this to be a fact but this fellow told it to me. He's gone now, don't know his name. There are so many of them who come and go down there that I can't keep track of them."

Further information given to Under-Sheriff Beley by Brickson, Monday, was his belief that Vermeersch was getting together an outfit to distill whiskey. It was during September of this year when he was working for Brickson on the new house that he brought home a coil of the type used to condense the fumes in making moonshine.

He brought them home and showed them to Brickson, telling him that he thought he would try wearing pointed shoes.

Familiar With Family. Vermeersch was familiar with the habits of the Brickson family and (Continued on page 10)

Scenes of Friday Night's Murder at the Brickson Home

Why Hector Vermeersch Was Arrested

Hector or Henry Vermeersch is a Belgian belonging to the Belgian colony in South Beloit. He worked in the beet sugar factory in Janesville in 1920. He knew Nels Brickson at the sugar beet factory. He worked for Nels Brickson and Mrs. Brickson at the rebuilding of the house for five weeks the past summer. He was not on his job at the farm of George Florida in the town of Clinton on Friday. He was partially identified as one who applied for work at the sugar beet factory on Friday afternoon. He has been identified as the man who cashed the check and attempted to cash it in several places in Janesville. The check cashed is for $40 and was given by the Sugar beet company in payment of wages to Nels Brickson and by him turned over to his wife. This is one of the checks mentioned by the Gazette story of the crime Saturday as perhaps having been in possession of Mrs. Brickson or as having been cashed by her.

Hector or Henry Vermeersch has been identified as the man who after having cashed the check hired a taxicab and was driven to Beloit. The check was cashed by Paul Buggs, the taxi was driven by John Prox and accompanying him was Frank Kerl. All are positive Vermeersch is the man they carried to Beloit and let out at the east end of the new bridge. Vermeersch was known as Fred by Nels Brickson.

He wore the same kind of clothes and cap as the man who cashed the check. He had in his possession a .32 calibre revolver with all chambers empty and many cartridges when arrested by Officer Lovelace of Beloit.

On the other hand Vermeersch had no money, wore rubbers and not pointed shoes and declared he was in Beloit all day Friday and Saturday and summons witnesses to prove the facts.

Boy Killed in Hunting Mishap

Rapine—Verne Dean, 19, was shot and killed by Ted Schroeder, superintendent of the Norris Educational Farm near Big Bend, in a hunting accident near the village of Galesville Sunday. Dean was one of the boys placed at the farm for education and training and was being instructed in hunting by Schroeder. Striking in mid-air, the lad jumped in front of Schroeder hunting piece and received the full charge. Schroeder is widely known in the state as a Y. M. C. A. man.

ITALIAN NATIONAL DEBT ON INCREASE

Rome—The Italian national debt amounted to $3,714,000,000 lire in October, 1921, 93,990,000,000 lire in October, 1920, and 104,721,000,000 lire in June, 1921. The increase is almost entirely accounted for by treasury bonds, which amount to close on 25,000,000,000 lire. (Normally a lire is equivalent to about 23 cents at current exchange rates to about 4 cents.)

ITALIAN ARRESTED ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Pleads Not Guilty When Arraigned Before Judge Maxfield Monday.

John Fels, Italian, who operates a small lunch stand on McKee street, pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling moonshine, when Fels, with two others, were arraigned in court before Judge H. L. Maxfield Monday morning. In connection with the complaint against Fels, a warrant was sworn out for holding Peter Larson, 20, a Michigan youth, alleged to have purchased the liquor. Patrolman Walter Preece made the arrests Sunday night. The Patrolman peeked through the window of the lunch stand and it is claimed saw Fels hand Larson a pint of liquor and receive the cash. As soon as Larson stepped from the building he was promptly arrested, and the bottle seized without Larson ever having a single sip.

Refuses to "Savvy" Fels refused to understand English when arraigned. He denied guilty with a series of emphatic negative expressions. "Do you want an examination?" questioned the judge. "No no understand," replied the defendant. "All right, sit down," ordered the court and Fels understood perfectly.

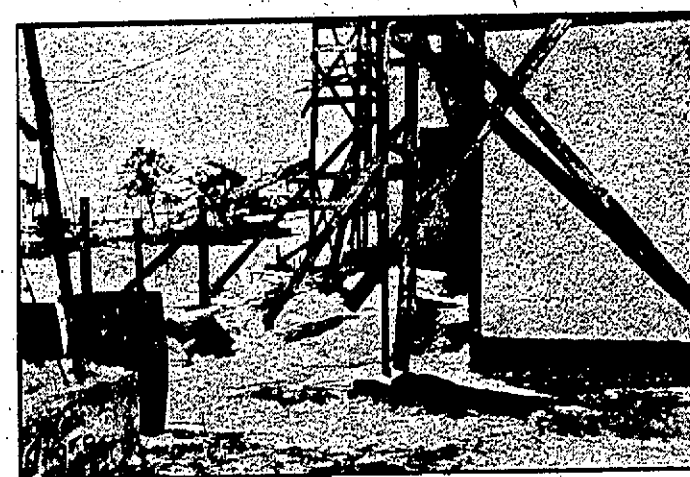

Down stairs in the police station Larson was brought in to face Fels. "Is this the man who sold you the liquor Sunday night?" demanded Chief Charles Newman as he pointed to Fels.

"Yes, he's the man," answered Larson. Then turning to Fels, the defendant, Larson said: "I cannot help it John. The cop saw me get the liquor. I cannot deny it—for he has got the goods on me."

Examination Nov. 18. The examination of Fels was set for Nov. 18 and Larson was held until the same date on a complaint charging the possession of liquor. He went to jail in default of $500 bail.

James Brady pleaded guilty to transporting liquor when arraigned. He was arrested at the skating rink. He was fined $100 and costs or six months in jail.

ARBuckle GOES ON TRIAL FOR DEATH OF FILM ACTRESS

SCORES OF WITNESSES ON BOTH SIDES ARE READY. SEE HARD TILT Bitter Struggle Expected. Crowds Surge Around Courtroom.

(By Associated Press.) San Francisco—Roscoe ("Fats") Arbuckle, motion picture comedian, went to trial Monday on a charge of manslaughter growing out of the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, Sept. 3. Scores of witnesses on both sides awaited the call to the stand. The crowds began to surge early through the narrow corridors on the third floor of the hall of justice where the trial court is located.

See Hard Battle Despite the fact that the admissions were limited to approximately 300, which included more than a score of newspaper men, hundreds picked points of vantage to glimpse the principals in the big legal drama as they went into the courtroom.

For more than a week, the contending sides have had their decks stripped for action and the eagerest spectators which they collected all possible evidence indicates a hard and bitter contest. The trial was to have started last Monday, but a local election and Armistice day so broke (Continued on page 2.)

9 Burn to Death in N. Y. Tenement

(By Associated Press.) New York—At least nine persons are believed to have been burned to death in a tenement house fire early Monday morning. Five bodies, all unidentified, were found huddled together near a doorway on the fifth floor of the building, and firemen later found three more bodies, none of which was identified. Two men and one woman were seriously injured while 30 others were treated for abrasions and shock.

The building, a five-story tenement, was occupied by 15 families. Investigation showed the fire had originated in the basement and roared up through a shaft to the second floor where it "mushroomed," spreading through the four upper stories of the building.

Many of the people who lived in the tenement, groped their way to windows where they clung to ledges and screamed for help. Postoffice employees from a substation across the street saved many before the firemen reached the scene. One man became exhausted while clinging to a window ledge and fell to the street, suffering a fractured skull.

to signal the engineer to stop when he saw the wreck was inevitable. He proved the last heroic act of William Francis Griffin, 22 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Griffin, 109 Main street, Whitewater, early Sunday morning.

Griffin, a fireman for the C. & N. St. P. railroad, was going to Milwaukee with a "dead" engine for repairs being hauled by another engine carrying about 16 freight cars, some of which were full, when the ties on the wheels of the dead engine rolled off as the train slowed down for water at Whitewater. Griffin, sitting in the cab, seeing a wreck was inevitable, sprang to the top of the cars and ran towards the engine, cab, signaling him to stop. The engine was derailed as he was standing on top of the freight cars. There were four cars between the dead engine and the (Continued on page 3)

GREAT BRITAIN TO ACCEPT U. S. PLAN

Agreement "in Principle" by Balfour Forecast in Statement.

(By Associated Press.) Washington—Great Britain's acceptance "in principle" of the American proposals for limitation of naval armament were definitely forecast Monday in a statement on behalf of the British delegation. Japan's acceptance "in principle" at least has been forecast by statements by Baron Admiral Kato and others of the Japanese delegation. Great Britain's principal consideration, it is understood, in framing the reply which Mr. Balfour will make Tuesday, has been the question of what was to be done to bring France and Italy within the scope of the plan for limitations.

Balfour to Speak

The American delegates, it is understood, impressed their British colleagues with the advisability of first disposing of the question as it affects the three "principals," the United States, Great Britain and Japan. Mr. Balfour, it was announced, will bespeak Great Britain's adherence to the fundamentals of the proposals drawn up by Secretary Hughes. What might be proposed as a modification, or in the nature of counter proposals for some features of the American plan, was not disclosed Monday. The impression held, however, that they might largely be matters of detail, not difficult of assimilation with the cardinal points of the American program.

Will Sit Matter

"My attitude has been and will be that Sheriff Rodd's rights will be protected. Coercion and intimidation have been the weapons that have been the instruments that set up at us again an orderly procedure. I intend to go to the very bottom of this matter and sift it until the truth is gathered and then take such action as the law and the facts justify."

JANESVILLE MAN DROWNED AS CAR FALLS INTO RIVER

HERMAN HALL LOSES LIFE IN TRAGEDY NEAR HEBRON.

BODY IS FOUND Funeral of Northwestern Employee Will Take Place Wednesday.

Trapped in his closed car, Herman Hall, aged 36, of 1215 South Cherry street, was drowned when the automobile plunged over the embankment into the Bark river, between Hebron and Sullivan, about 8 p. m. Sunday.

His body was found in the river about 20 p. m. by a searching party of relatives headed by Louis Reich, a cousin. Hall's watch had stopped at 5:05.

Hall had left Janesville with his mother, Mrs. Marietta Hall, with whom he made his home to visit his uncle, Charles Reich, near Sullivan. He left his mother visiting friends in Hebron and went on to the home of his uncle, to return later. He left about 5 p. m. and started for Hebron to get his mother.

Searchers Find Body. Becoming worried the party of searchers started out to hunt for him. The car had plunged over the embankment at a very narrow place in the road on the side of the Bark river towards Hebron. There is no guardrail there to protect motorists. The car went into the river just after it had passed the creek. It was believed at first Hall had gone over the embankment in attempting to pass a team, but this report was not verified.

Hall was a member of the Bark River lodge No. 455, Railroad Carmen, and was employed at South Janesville as a carman for the Northwestern road.

Funeral, Wednesday

A funeral service will be held at the home of his cousin, Louis Reich, at Atkinson, Wednesday afternoon. Burial will be at the family lot near Rome. Mrs. Hall, his mother, who is a sister of Charles Reich of Sullivan, will be in the casket. He was 36 years old.

Charles, 415 South Washington street, a switchman for the Northwestern, his father died several years ago.

BLAINE CONTINUES SHERIFF'S HEARING

Refuses to Receive Answer of Rhinelander Officer to Charges.

Madison—Governor Blaine on Monday continued until Tuesday the hearing on the complaint against Sheriff Elias Rodd of Oneida county, charged with refusing to obey an executive pardon order. He declared that at that time he was waiting for a final hearing to determine what "attempts have been made by Judge A. H. Reid, of Watousa, the Rhinelander paper company, to attorneys or the governor to intimidate and coerce the executive."

The governor refused to receive the answer of Sheriff Rodd, who offered in his defense, that he had been convinced that the 10 day period, allowed by law for filing answer to a complaint, had not elapsed. Instructions were given by the governor that the sheriff return the envelope in which the complaint and the answer were contained, to allow him to determine whether his defense should be admitted.

Intimidation Charges. "I am convinced that prior to the granting of the Peter Christ pardon, a plan was developed to coerce and intimidate the sheriff of Oneida and Langlade counties," Governor Blaine said. "Since the granting of the pardon a course has been pursued to intimidate and coerce the executive."

"Private citizens, in the performance of their lawful duties, have been intimidated and coerced. To wit: have been the Rhinelander paper company, its attorneys, Judge Reid, or the sheriff of Oneida county, have willfully participated in any plan of intimidation or coercion will be determined at this hearing."

"The delay of the sheriff in filing his answer within the time required by law, gathered and then take such action as the law and the facts justify."

DEBATE PREDICTED ON PAVING PLANS

Dispute Expected Tonight if Council Takes Up Five-Mile Program.

Guns are expected to pop at the regular meeting of the council Monday night, if the five-mile paving program proposed 10 days ago, is brought up for adoption. One protest against paving is already on file at the city hall and it is known here there is sentiment against taking up such a project now.

The protest on file with City Clerk E. J. Sartell was presented by property owners on Minnesota street, from Washington street to Pine street, objecting to the proposed paving of that street in 1922 as an "unnecessary burden."

Mayor E. J. Welch was busy in his office at the city hall all day Monday, signing checks and orders, and presiding at a meeting of the board of public works in the afternoon. Several council members called upon him during the day.

The mayor expects to go to Rockford, Tuesday, to attend a conference of mayors and presidents of 60 cities and towns of Southern Illinois and Northern Illinois. An auto tour of Rockford from 2 to 4 p. m., a banquet at the city hall and a conference at 6:30 at the Rockford Athletic club are on the program.

Duty to Family Above Business, Ministers Urge

"This is the machine age—we no longer drift, we travel fast," said Rev. J. A. Malross speaking on the topic "Will the Church Speak?" in a timely sermon for Father and Son Sunday morning, at the Presbyterian church, Sunday morning. "We are speeding up in business and the tendency of the times, is to let go, in wild extravagance of the social order, once the tension is loosed."

The church must begin in the family home, to lay more emphasis on a life of service rather than efficiency in business as the goal and end of the day. Time for wholesome amusements with their children if they expect to influence their lives for the best, he continued.

Rev. G. G. Smith, the morning service at the Baptist church took as his text the words from the bible story of Joseph and his brethren, "How shall I go up to my father, which the Lord has said?" and emphasized the joy of being a parent and also the responsibility of a parent that every boy has some man as his model whom he emulates, either in good or in evil.

The influence is so tremendous that it influences each man to look to his own conduct to see if it is worthy of being an example.

"Y" DIRECTORS FOR RETIREMENT FUND

Plan to Aid Veteran Employed Officers Favored Here.

The greatest step for the upbuilding of the national association, and the Janesville Young Men's Christian association, the retirement fund for employed officers, was approved by the board of directors of the Janesville Y. M. C. A. meeting Friday.

Under the provisions of the retirement fund, recently established, Janesville employed officers will be allowed to be retired at 60 years of age. They will be given a pension for the remainder of life equal to one and one-half per cent of the average salary for the preceding 10 years of service, multiplied by the total number of years of service.

All five officers of the local association have agreed to the provisions. They must put a certain percentage of their salary into the fund and the association puts in a certain amount each year. Of the $4,000,000 which must be established as an accrued liability fund, before the fund becomes effective, $1,000,000 has already been subscribed by John D. Rockefeller and family; John R. Mott, general secretary, has promised to raise another million dollars, and A. H. Whitford, Buffalo, general secretary, will have charge of raising $2,000,000. The Janesville officers are $100 to give in their part, having agreed to give 10 percent of their annual salary for five years. They have also subscribed $1 for each year they have been in Y. M. C. A. work to the general organization fund.

"It is going to stabilize our fund anything else the employed force of the Y. M. C. A., and will make it possible for men to realize more than anything else that the Y. M. C. A. is a life work," said J. A. Steiner.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Bellevue—Protest against the indiscriminate use of the army uniforms which may be purchased in army stores, was made by the Delavan post of the American Legion here Sunday week. Crime Wave at Top, Lawyer of Milwaukee Says

"The climax on the assault of the law has been reached," declared Attorney Henry V. Kane, Milwaukee, in his speech to 100 members of the Junior and Senior Holy Name Society of St. Patrick's church here, following a breakfast served in the school Sunday by the women of Circle 2.

"Ten years ago there were 135,000 persons behind the bars in the United States, and today the number has swelled to 150,000. Two hundred and thirty-six people were murdered in New York alone during the past year and only 61 were convicted of murder."

"During the last few years, Uncle Sam has more than doubled the guard service force and with the guards of postoffice and mail trains shows that there is a crying need for people to come back to law and order," he declared.

Kane also spoke on the purpose and aim of the society, and commended the work of the local organization.

SHE WOULDN'T BE WITHOUT TANLAC

Detroit Woman Says Her Rheumatism and Indigestion Are Entirely Gone.

"All the thanks, praise and gratitude for my present good health belongs to Tanlac," said Mrs. Eva Detombeau, 5123 Field Ave., Detroit, Mich.

"When I began taking Tanlac I believe I was right on the verge of a nervous breakdown. My stomach was in such a weak, disordered condition I could hardly retain anything I would eat at times. What I ate at other times caused gas, flatulency and other spells I could hardly stand. I was subject to fearful headaches and pains in the back of my neck that nearly set me wild. I had rheumatism in my feet and ankles and I could scarcely walk at times, and was considerably off in weight."

"I had been in bad health for many years and just tried Tanlac, and nothing helped me until I began taking Tanlac. This medicine helped me right from the start and with my Tanlac I began to improve rapidly. My appetite and stomach improved so that my food gave me nourishment. With a few bottles more my aches and pains all disappeared and my weight increased ten pounds. I am a different woman now from what I was before taking Tanlac and I wouldn't think of being without Tanlac. It is sold in Janesville by McCue & Buss and leading druggists everywhere."

DEER SEASON ON, WOODS ARE FULL

Earlier Than Usual But Snow Makes Good Hunting Weather.

Monday ushered in the annual deer hunting season in Wisconsin. It was the first day on which deer may be killed and a large number of Janesville hunters and others from Southern Wisconsin were in the northern part of Wisconsin ready to be in the camps in counties where deer may be hunted between Nov. 10 and Dec. 10. Deer cannot be hunted in the water or on ice, but a school or with the aid of artificial light.

Hunters are cautioned by the commission against shooting before one sees the horns of the deer. It is believed this precaution, if it is followed, will save several hunters. The deer is allowed to shoot is a spike buck, about 15 months old.

Automobiles or other vehicles are liable to be confiscated if used to transport a gun or rifle unless accompanied by a license.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do so, the must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, a well-known physical in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the solution for cholera, are effective in their action yet always gentle. They bring about the natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

"Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c."

I Do All My Buying In My Home Town--- So Should You

Because my interests are here.

Because the community that is good enough for me to live in is good enough for me to buy in.

Because I believe in transacting business with my friends.

Because I want to see the goods.

Because I want to get what I buy when I pay for it.

Because every dollar I spend at home stays at home and works for the welfare of the home town.

Because the man I buy from stands back of the goods.

Because I sell what I produce at home.

Because the man I buy from pays his part of the town, county and state taxes.

Because the man I buy from gives value received always.

Because the man I buy from helps support my schools, churches, lodges, and my home.

Because when ill luck or misfortune or bereavement comes, the man I buy from is here with kindly greeting, his word of cheer and his pocketbook, if need be.

BRICKSON HOME SCENE OF MURDER

Off the Road and a Fit Place for Friday Night's Crime.

The newspaper man would describe the Brickson home on the Magnolia road as a "good place for a murder."

When you pass the country club golf course, you will see it on the high ground overlooking the low ground that slopes down to the river.

Between the road and the house there is a corn patch fence with the house in the background.

The house is a two-story building with a large porch and a small garden.

Victoriously eliminated from the Big Ten conference championship by losing to Michigan Saturday, 7 to 0, in one of the fiercest battles in the history of mid-western football, Wisconsin's hopes of winning the title are now in jeopardy. The Badgers did not lose Saturday, but they were a third place victory for the Wolverines and Coach Richard's team has therefore a percentage of 37.5.

It is believed that if Ohio and Iowa are going to have the conference title to split between them this year, the Badgers will have to win the game with Michigan. Ohio has a little harder time before her with the Illini, but the odds are against her.

Next Saturday's game between the Badgers and the Maroons promises to be a real test. The Wisconsin-Michigan game in football. The result of Saturday's game will be a real test. The Badgers will have to win the game with Michigan. Ohio has a little harder time before her with the Illini, but the odds are against her.

Hardly before the cheers of the 15,000 fans had died away, Michigan pulled a trick upon the Badgers and got away with a dash over the line, following it with a kick to tie the score. It was a spectacular play. Getting the ball from Roby, Gabel shot it along the side to Gabel, at end, who shot it 30 yards to Roby. With an open field Roby, faced 25 yards to put the oval over.

For practically the first time this season, the Badgers opened up on their forward pass game. The reason for this was that it was shown that the Badgers' line was not as good as the Michigan line. The Badgers' line was not as good as the Michigan line.

Michigan's aerial game was forced upon them. They found the Wolverine line like a brick wall. The Badgers' line was not as good as the Michigan line. The Badgers' line was not as good as the Michigan line.

City League Halts Games Over Alley Controversy

Bowling in the city league was ordered halted indefinitely by the board of directors of the Jamesville bowling association and the captains of the city league teams at a meeting held Sunday in the city office. With two teams declaring they will no longer roll in the circuit unless the league side alleys are planned or the games are changed over to the West Side alleys, the officials took immediate steps to settle the controversy once for all.

A telegram was dispatched to A. L. Langley, Milwaukee secretary of the American Bowling Congress, asking him to send an inspector to Jamesville to determine the status of the West Side alleys and if they should be planned. Until this matter is settled officially by the A. B. C., no games will be rolled in the city league.

Several other matters of importance were discussed by the 'Tin Knights'. The most important was an amendment to the by-laws, section 11, which now reads: 'If the scheduled team is unable to secure a racing team to roll a regular game, the game shall be rolled on two alleys, but the lead off man cannot start on the next alley until the anchor man finishes on the first alley.'

A bill of H. M. Lampert, secretary of the Jamesville bowling association last year, for expenses incurred in the city of his duties was ordered paid. The total was a little over $25. It covers telephone and telegraph bills, six trips between Madison and Jamesville, and two trips to Milwaukee.

Those at the meeting were: President Frank Sinclair; Vice President A. J. Hubel; Secretary George Kueck; Treasurer James P. New; Milton Cook; Jesse Cornell; Frank Grover; Paulus; Dr. S. P. Richards; Frank Messick.

Story of Events Leading to the Arrest of One Man for the Murder of Mrs. Erickson

After shooting Mrs. Erickson in cold blood about 9 o'clock Friday night, the murderer walked through the snow-covered fields to the highway, then turned east, and walked into Janesville. He did not flee as though he feared he might be followed by anyone who could have heard the shots as tracks through the fields were those of a man who had been walking fast but not running. The slayer was from an indication of the fact that he was alone, and he was also aware of the long distance of the house from the nearest habitation.

The murderer visited the downtown district of Janesville after his crime came late Friday afternoon when news of the murder was in the Gazette. The facts developed rapidly Saturday night that the slayer had been in a number of stores and restaurants trying to cash a check stolen from the dead woman.

Bravely determined. He was brzen and determined enough to get the money on the check despite repeated refusals to cash it at least five attempts to cash it. The check was that issued to Erickson by the Rock County Sugar company, his pay check. It had been endorsed by Mrs. Erickson and she was his wife might cash it where she desired.

It is believed the murderer walked down Washington and then cut across the street to the north side of the Fourth avenue bridge to avoid the main part of Milwaukee street. This is the conjecture based upon information that the first place he attempted to cash the check was at the Planters hotel, North Main street, about 10 o'clock. It may have been his plan to get the money at once and take the 10:15 interurban car. Whatever his plans were, they were overthrown when the check was refused.

Refused at Clear Store. Development show that the next place he visited was the Clear store, 315 West Milwaukee street. It was shortly after 10 p. m. when he was refused to cash the check. George Trieloff, to let him have the money on a check.

"Is it a personal check?" he was asked by Trieloff.

"No," he answered. "It is a Rock County Sugar company," was the reply, according to Trieloff.

When Trieloff refused to cash it, he left without saying anything or making any further remarks. He did not show the check.

Tried More Places. Although defeated in Janesville, the slayer was not enough to try again, this time at the Henwitz lunch car, corner of West Milwaukee and North Academy streets.

He walked east, and down the place several times and said he would get something to eat if I would cash his check," said Harry Benwitz. "He appeared nervous, when I turned him down he went out."

The man tried to cash the check at the lunch room of the Northwestern depot three times, according to the police. He probably visited it first after being refused at Benwitz's lunch car. Failing at the depot, he visited Spaulding's pool room on North Academy street and went back to the depot after he was not allowed any money there. By this time it was after 11 o'clock, the north-bound Minneapolis train had gone through and the last interurban had left.

Paul Bugge Cashes Check. Finally the slayer entered the office of the White Star Taxi, 521 Wall street, opposite the Northwestern depot, and said he would like to be driven to Beloit if they would accept his check. Paul Bugge, proprietor, was hesitant but looked over the check.

"I saw it was a pay check from the sugar company and looked at the endorsement on the other side," said Mr. Bugge. "I wanted to be sure of myself so I asked him to sign his name on a sheet of paper, and when he wrote the name, N. D. Erickson, so it looked like the signature on the back of the check I gave him his money."

Brickson home for five weeks the past summer.

From Arthur W. Robbel, superintendent of the sugar plant, Under-sheriff Beley learned Sunday that Vermeersch was employed in the beet fields on the farm of George Florida, Clinton, the past summer and that he might be located either there or in the Belgian settlement.

Vermeersch was employed by Robbel at the sugar plant either Thursday or Friday—he was not positive of the day—asking for a job, he was given one. He was 45 years old, learning further that his age was about 45, Mr. Beley at once asked Chief Charles Qualman of Beloit to arrest him as a suspect and also to search the room of Vermeersch.

Arrested in South Beloit. It was shortly before 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon that word was received at the county jail from Chief Qualman that Vermeersch had been arrested in South Beloit by Officer Walter Lovelace and was being held in the Beloit police station.

Two auto loads made up of officials and Janesville men who believed they could identify the murderer. Vermeersch was sitting in the office of Desk Sgt. B. P. Lanier in the police station when the delegation arrived.

Bugge, Prox, Karl and Trieloff looked him over carefully. Talked with him, finding that he used English, and then went into another room where all agreed that Vermeersch resembled the man seen here. None was positive, however, so they talked about the man and looked for a way they could be more sure of the identification.

Revolver Is Found. Officer Lovelace was then dispatched by Chief Qualman to make a trip to South Beloit with Mr. Beley to search the room of Vermeersch in a Belgian boarding-house. There they found his suit-case containing among other things an empty .32 calibre revolver in a holder with a 35-hole cartridge belt containing 32 shells of .32 calibre size. The revolver is of the H. & K. make, an old-fashioned double action type.

Mr. Erickson says Vermeersch carried an old-fashioned .32 calibre revolver when he worked for him building his house the past summer.

In another suit-case belonging to Vermeersch, found in the home of a Belgian a few doors away which the suspect has frequented with others, playing cards, authorities discovered a brown suit of clothes and a pair of pointed shoes of English style. Mr. Beley was told by the owner of the house that Vermeersch had spent Friday night there, having gone to bed about 7 o'clock in the evening. Asked about this later, Vermeersch said he slept there Friday night and that he went to bed at 9 o'clock in a room.

Puts on Mackinaw. The two suit-cases, the revolver and other belongings of Vermeersch, including a mackinaw, were then taken to the Beloit police station where the suspect was ordered to put on his mackinaw and cap to undergo another inspection. Seeing him in the mackinaw, Bugge, Prox, Karl and Trieloff were then more positive that he was the man who cashed the check.

He stood just like that and had that same kind of a coat and cap on," said Mr. Bugge after looking him over carefully.

He seemed to have talked better English when I saw him Saturday night although he may just be putting this on now," said Mr. Trieloff.

Brought to Janesville. Vermeersch's suit-case, and all his belongings were loaded into Under-sheriff Beley's car and brought to Janesville, arriving at the county jail at 5:30 Sunday afternoon. He was searched more thoroughly and then looked up in a cell-room alone, other prisoners having been moved so that he could talk to no one.

Others who had seen the murderer in Janesville Friday night were then called in to look at Vermeersch. Alvah Maxfield, who saw the man from the rear when he entered Murphy's cigar store, said he recognized him as being about the same height and build. Harry Benwitz said Vermeersch answered the description although he would not state positively he had seen the murderer. Vermeersch was not the man who came into the Luthers hotel late Friday night to cash a check.

Appearance was Shabby. Vermeersch had what might be called a "hang-dog" look about him when he was being looked over and questioned. He appeared slightly nervous, but he was not, he said, not been accused directly of the crime. He admitted having worked at Erickson's for five weeks and answered in the affirmative when asked whether or not he knew Mrs. Erickson.

"I've got four witnesses to prove I was in Beloit all day Friday and Friday night," he declared in his best English.

When arrested he was attired in a gray flannel shirt, faded green sweater with purple collar, old coat and trousers, large rubber shoes. He had a faded cap and a black striped. His appearance was generally shabby and unkempt. His intelligence appeared to be of low degree to those who talked with him. He said nothing unless questioned and stood motionless in "hang-dog" style when being inspected. He laughed a little after the flash-light explosion made by the photographer in securing his picture in the county jail office but otherwise he was of serious and sober mien.

He was given a light supper consisting of bread and broth at 7 o'clock and went to bed in his cell early.

Articles in Suitcase. All sorts of articles from balls of yarn to razors and a hammer were found in an inspection of the contents of one suitcase. The other contained nothing but the brown suit and the pointed shoes of English style.

Bank passbooks, envelopes, several letters written in Belgian, a number of pictures and booklets were found.

Some of the pictures are of his brothers, two of whom are living in Belgium. His third brother was killed in the World war, he says.

While passbook envelopes were found, there were no bank books.

One envelope from the savings department of the Merchants & Savings bank, Janesville, number 20,984, issued to Henry Vermeersch, while another was from the First National bank, Janesville, number 6416.

There were letters, postmarked Milwaukee, Union Grove, Wis., and East Moline, Ill. Many pictures and photographs, probably of friends and relatives, were found. One photograph was of himself with two other Belgians taken while they were at work in beet fields. A picture of a nude woman was also in the assortment.

Other articles in the suitcase were: bottle of bay rum; can of facial powder; two razors, one of the safety type; a large belt taper in the end of a curved knife, 13 inches long; two balls of heavy yarn, one green, the other red; needles; hammer; flash-light; radio watch; pack of cards; alarm clock; tooth brush; and many articles of soiled clothing.

In U. S. for 20 Years. Vermeersch was questioned but little Sunday night, at the county jail. Information gathered from him by Under-sheriff Beley is that he came over to the United States from Belgium 20 years ago and that he is now 43 years old. Much of his time in this country has been spent in Janesville, Beloit, and Clinton.

He worked in the sugar factory here a year ago and in the Fairbanks-Morse plant at Beloit several winters. Most of his summers have been spent in the beet fields, he having worked the past summer on the George Florida farm, Clinton. It was during the dull season in beet that he left the farm to work for Mr. Erickson. He said he worked eight days digging ditches for sewers in Janesville, and then he was paid $250 for his work on Erickson's new house. But 55 cents could be found on him when he was arrested.

Was Out of Money? "I had no money coming when we deliver all the beets to the factory," Vermeersch said in response to questions as to whether he was without funds. "I spent the money I got from Mr. Erickson for clothes and to live on."

Authorities are attempting to establish the point that he was badly in need of money to take him over until he could get his pay from the beet sugar factory, and that he became desperate when he failed to get a job upon application there after Thursday or Friday. Vermeersch claims it was Thursday that he visited the plant and that he was not in Janesville at all, Friday.

Vermeersch was familiar with the home of the Erickson family, having lived in the basement with them during the time he worked on the new home. He said he never had any trouble with either Erickson or his wife.

Pocketbook Is Clue. While Under-sheriff Beley is almost convinced Vermeersch is the murderer, he is awaiting one more development to be positive. That is the identification of a pocketbook found in Vermeersch's suitcase, believed to be that stolen from Mrs. Erickson on the night of the murder.

In talking over the telephone with George Havn, son-in-law of the murdered woman, Sunday night, the sheriff's office learned that the size of the pocketbook was to be shown to Erickson and Mrs. Havn, Monday morning, to determine whether it is the one carried by Mrs. Erickson.

Lynn A. Whaley and Mr. Beley both agreed that the identification of this pocketbook would be the final link in the chain of evidence that is gradually being wound about the slayer, of Henry Vermeersch, held in the Rock county jail.

Evidence is Strong. "We have enough evidence now to hold this man for trial on the charge of murder," declared Mr. Beley, Sunday night. "and the pocketbook, if the Erickson family can identify it."

Mr. Beley said he was told by Belgians at the house in South Beloit that Vermeersch had taken a drink of liquor and had eaten some coffee just before he was arrested. Vermeersch denied having had a drink when questioned later.

"You lied to me about this and you're lying about the whole thing," the under-sheriff told the prisoner.

Murder of Mrs. Brickson

Mr. Fred Beley and Deputy Frank Britt of the sheriff's office, and U. S. Deputy Marshal Will Tanton, Madison, who happened to be at the jail when word of the crime was received.

The jury spent considerable time in looking over the body and surrounding the body and all agreed informally that robbery was the only possible motive for the murder. Mr. Whaley announced the inquest would be held Monday or Tuesday.

Husband Breaks Down.
Mr. Brickson broke down completely when questioned Saturday morning over his wife's body.

"Oh, if they had only taken the money but left her," he cried, "it's too much, too much. I can't stand it!"

Sadness of the cold-blooded affair was quickened by the grief of the husband who had labored for four years in building a home there. Now as it is nearing completion, a near-little success dwelling, his wife is taken from him and his dream of a happy little home of their own where they could spend their declining years together is an empty one.

His faithful wife had assisted daily in making the new home. She had spent much of her last day painting the trimmings of the stucco in red.

Were Happy Couple.
"They were very happy together," said Mrs. George Havns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brickson, who was called from her home near the county farm upon the discovery of the body Saturday. "They didn't have much money—everything they had was going into building the house and making other improvements about the small farm."

"Mother has been in good health all her life—it is my father who is not well. We have feared for his life ever since he was operated upon for appendicitis. I thought it was he who had died when they called us this morning—not mother."

Fired at Close Range.

The shots were apparently fired at close range, one of the bullets which entered the back having penetrated through the abdomen to within an inch of the skin on the opposite side. An incision was made by Coroner Whaley and the bullet removed, giving the first positive evidence that the revolver used was a .32 calibre. The other bullets were not located.

Two of the bullet holes were in the small of the back, three inches apart. The third was through the rear of the left hip. The fourth, fired from the front cut through the woman's coat, waist and underclothing and penetrated the heart.

The evidence indicates she was fired upon three times from the rear and, as she crumpled to the ground over her back, the murderer leaned over her, took careful aim and fired directly through her heart to be sure of her death. There was an expression of agony and fright upon the dead woman's face, and the mouth was open. There was no evidence of there having been any struggle.

Checks Not Located.
The missing purse contained either two checks aggregating $53.50 or their equivalent in cash, as the banks have no record of their having been cashed although it is possible she turned the checks in at some store Friday upon finding the banks closed for Armistice day. The checks, if cashed, should be located by the banks before Monday.

One of the checks was dated Nov. 5, issued by the Rock County Sugar company to Brickson for $40. This was on the Rock County National bank. The other was on the First National bank, for $59.50, dated about October 19, and given him by John Dawson, stock buyer, for a cow.

Wife Handled Money.
"My wife always handled my checks and took care of all our money, paying the bills," said Mr. Brickson. "I had told her many times to keep the money in the bank but she would keep the checks for several days, sometimes several weeks until she needed the money to pay bills. Then she would go directly to the bank and cash them. We have no bank account. She frequently would go down town or out at night. I am convinced she has been down town last night and was just about to go into the house when she was murdered."

First Murder Since '14.
The house where the heartless tragedy was enacted is located 500 yards south of the Magnolia road, on a knoll. The 10-acre tract which

Mr. Brickson has owned for the past five years adjoins the lands of the Country club and overtures have frequently been made to him to acquire it for the club, but he would not sell it.

The murder is the first that has occurred in the immediate vicinity of Janesville for more than five years. The last murder here was on October 26, 1916, when Vincento Corveale was killed by Raffaele Palmero. Palmero is now serving a life term in Waupun.

In Rock Co. 30 Years.
Mrs. Brickson was born in Norway in 1859 and came to the United States with her parents in 1874. They lived in Dane county, in the vicinity of Stoughton, for several years. She came to Janesville prior to her marriage and worked in the old Echlin home in the first ward during the famous winter of 1881.

She married Nels Erickson in 1892 and they lived near Stoughton until 1891 when they moved to Rock county, taking up their home at the old Rock River tavern on the west side of the four-mile bridge. They lived there until five years ago when Mr. Erickson acquired the 10-acre tract near the Country club and began building a home later. They lived in the house as it was being constructed. He performed all the heavy labor alone during his spare time, his wife assisting him where possible.

Funeral Is Tuesday.

Two children, three brothers and two sisters survive besides Mr. Brickson. The children are: Mrs. George Havns, living near the Rock county farm, and Mrs. Ross Keller, Evansville. The brothers are: Mathew Nelson, Oregon, Wis.; Ole Nelson, Stoughton, and John Nelson, Edgerton; and the sisters, Mrs. Ben Johnson and Mrs. L. Larson, both of Stoughton. Deceased was a member of the Norwegian Lutheran church. The funeral will be held from Whaley's undertaking rooms at 1:30 p. m., Tuesday.

STORY HOUR SUCCESS.
Story hour, the first of the fall, was a great success at the public library Saturday morning, about 75 small children attending. Miss Emily Mosser, the story-teller, told "Prince and the Pea," "The Boy Who Cried Wolf," "The Monkey and the Crocodile," and "The Brahman, the Tiger and the Jackal." Stories will be told by Miss Mosser at 10:30 every Saturday morning.
